Gloucester County Landscape Designers Create Show Stopping Exhibits at the 2013 PHS Philadelphia Flower Show.

Joe Palimeno President and Landscape Designer of Ledden Palimeno Landscape Company and Larry Bloomfield of Bloomfield Designs have teamed up to create show stopping exhibits for EP Henry and Subaru of America the two largest sponsors at the 2013 PHS Philadelphia Flower Show, the oldest and largest indoor show of its kind in the world.

This year's theme, "Brilliant!," draws inspiration from the contemporary culture, design, gardens and landscapes of Great Britain.

"Did that statue just move?" Patrons of the show are lining up to see the EP Henry exhibit featuring a living statue perform among colorful formal gardens surrounding a pool, formal brick arches, and fanciful fountains.

The Subaru of America exhibit reminiscent of the Beatles' "Sergeant Pepper" celebrates the British Invasion. A huge wildly psychedelic drum of flowers creates a huge splash with show patrons, rhythmically playing off smaller drums and other instruments in the fountain's pool. A peace sign is painted in the colors of Britain's flag while two towering drumsticks suspend sculptures of peace, love, and happiness over bright colorful plantings and of course, there's the parking meter for "Rita". Another exhibit for Subaru on the main concourse features an iconic red London phone booth and a whimsical fountain at a park bench with umbrella's to ward off the a gentle shower.

Joe and Larry are both looking forward to Spring and all signs are pointing to a very good season ahead with the many positive responses received they've received from the show.

"Now is a great time to invest in your home not only to increase the real estate value but most importantly for the lifestyle you get for family and friends from a properly designed outdoor space, said Joe."
